Our Mission

The mission of Trapped in Scene is to provide a platform for emerging artists to showcase their work and connect with a supportive community of like-minded individuals. We believe that everyone has the potential to be creative, and we are committed to providing a space where artists can feel comfortable expressing themselves and sharing their work with the world. We are also committed to promoting diversity and inclusion in the arts, and we believe that everyone, regardless of their background or experience, deserves a chance to be heard.

Our Platform

Trapped in Scene operates a variety of online platforms, including a website, a blog, and social media accounts. Our website is a hub for all things Trapped in Scene, and it features a directory of artists, a calendar of upcoming events, and a collection of articles and interviews. Our blog is a space for artists to share their thoughts and ideas about the creative process, and our social media accounts are a way for us to connect with our community and share news and updates. In addition to our online platforms, we also host a variety of offline events, including concerts, art exhibitions, and workshops.

Our Community

The Trapped in Scene community is made up of a diverse group of artists, musicians, writers, filmmakers, and other creative individuals from around the world. Our community members are passionate about their work, and they are always willing to support each other. They are also active in their local communities, and they often organize events and workshops to promote the arts. The Trapped in Scene community is a vibrant and supportive place to be, and it is a great place for artists to connect with like-minded individuals and share their work with the world.

Our Impact

Trapped in Scene has had a positive impact on the creative community. Our platform has helped to launch the careers of several emerging artists, and our community has provided a space for artists to connect with each other and share their work. We are also proud of the role that we have played in promoting diversity and inclusion in the arts. We believe that everyone has the potential to be creative, and we are committed to providing a platform for artists from all walks of life to showcase their work.

Get Involved

There are many ways to get involved with Trapped in Scene. You can submit your work to our website, attend our events, or join our community on social media. We are always looking for new ways to support artists and promote creativity, so please get in touch if you have any ideas or suggestions. We would love to hear from you!
