Drawing on ancient wisdom and contemporary research, the Center cultivates a learning environment that nurtures the holistic development of educators. Mindful practices, contemplative inquiry, and artistic expression intertwine, creating a tapestry of experiences that awaken the soul's potential.

The Art of Mindfulness: Cultivating Present Moment Awareness

Mindfulness is the cornerstone of the Center's approach. Through guided meditations, breathwork exercises, and mindful movement, educators are guided to cultivate present moment awareness. This practice fosters a deep connection to the self, students, and the world around them, enhancing their ability to respond with compassion and discernment.

Compassionate Pedagogy: Nurturing the Hearts and Minds of Students

Compassion is not simply a virtue; it is a transformative force in education. At the Center for Paint On, educators explore the principles and practices of compassionate pedagogy, learning how to create inclusive classrooms where all students feel valued, respected, and empowered.

Through role-playing, case studies, and reflective dialogue, educators develop the skills to respond to students' needs with empathy, understanding, and a genuine desire to support their growth.

Artistic Expression: Unleashing the Creative Spirit

Artistic expression is an integral part of the transformative journey at the Center. Through painting, dance, music, and other creative outlets, educators explore their own creativity and discover its potential to inspire and connect with students.

By embracing their inner artist, educators cultivate a sense of wonder, imagination, and the ability to perceive the world through fresh eyes. This creative spirit permeates their teaching, fostering a dynamic and engaging learning environment.

Transformative Educators: Agents of Change in the World

The transformative journey at the Center for Paint On culminates in the emergence of mindful, compassionate, and creative educators.

Empowered with a deep understanding of the sacred nature of their profession, they become agents of change in their classrooms and communities.

These educators create spaces where students can flourish, not only academically but also emotionally, socially, and spiritually. They inspire their students to think critically, engage with empathy, and embrace their own unique potential.

: A Legacy of Empowerment and Transformation

The Center for Paint On embodies the belief that teacher preparation is not just about preparing individuals for a job; it is about cultivating leaders who will shape the future of education and the world. By unmasking the sacred in teacher preparation, the Center empowers educators to transform themselves and ignite a transformative spark in their students.

As the Center continues its mission, its legacy will be measured not only by the number of teachers it has certified but by the countless lives that have been touched and transformed through its transformative approach to education.
